

Medical Release, Permission and Code of Conduct Form

For your information, we expect each student to conform to these rules of conduct

- I will respect the spiritual growth and work goals of the camp and participate in all scheduled activities, which are designed to make the most of my camp experience.
- I will respect the privacy of others by not entering into areas of the school assigned to females if I am a male or areas assigned to males if I am a female.
- To respect the people of the community and other campers from diverse denominations, I will dress and behave modestly. The community will expect our dress and behavior to be different as Christians.
- To respect other campers and so all can get the rest needed I will respect the camp lights-out time.
- I will respect the local community and those we live with for the camp week by not damaging the school or other property.
- I will respect those around me by not using obscene or abusive language or engaging in reckless behavior that could cause harm to others or myself.
- To help the camp time be focused on interacting with God and others, I will not bring into the school electronic video devices, computers, or toy guns. I understand there is no security for valuables.
- For my safety, I will not leave the school grounds or project site without an adult if I am under 21.
- I will not change room assignments, so my location will be known if I need to be contacted in an emergency.
- I will not have in my possession or use fireworks, firearms, illegal drugs, or alcohol. And I will obey all the laws of the community and state in which I am serving. I know that illegal activity will not be tolerated and that local police will be called if necessary.
- To respect others, I will not use tobacco in vehicles, at the project site, in the school, or in neighboring residents' yards. I understand it is illegal to use tobacco on most school grounds.
- I will respect and follow the directives of my adult leaders, other camp adults, and Group camp staff.
- I will respect others by avoiding inappropriate sexual activity. I will not engage in sexual misconduct, which can include inappropriate comments, gestures, or physical contact.
- I have read and understand this Code of Conduct. It is out of respect for God, myself, and others that I abide by these rules. If I violate these rules, I may be denied the privilege of participating in the camp. I may be asked to leave the camp (without reimbursement of expenses or registration) at the request of my youth leader or camp staff.

Students who fail to comply with these expectations may be sent home at their parents' expense.

I, the student, have read the rules of conduct, the above evaluation of my health, and permission to participate in youth group activities. I agree to abide by the stated personal limitations and code of conduct.

This consent form gives permission to seek whatever medical attention is deemed necessary, and releases the Church and its staff of any liability against personal losses of named child.

I/We the undersigned have legal custody of the student named above, a minor, and have given our consent for him/her to attend events being organized by the Church. I/We understand that there are inherent risks involved in any ministry or athletic event, and I/we hereby release the Church, its pastors, employees, agents, and volunteer workers from any and all liability for any injury, loss, or damage to person or property that may occur during the course of my/our child's involvement. In the event that he/she is injured and requires the attention of a doctor, I/we consent to any reasonable medical treatment as deemed necessary by a licensed physician. In the event treatment is required from a physician and/or hospital personnel designated by the Church, I/we agree to hold such person free and harmless of any claims, demands, or suits for damages arising from the giving of such consent. I/We also acknowledge that we will be ultimately responsible for the cost of any medical care should the cost of that medical care not be reimbursed by the health insurance provider. Further, I/we affirm that the health insurance information provided above is accurate at this date and will, to the best of my/our knowledge, still be in force for the student named above. I/we also agree to bring my/our child home at my/our own expense should they become ill or if deemed necessary by the student ministries staff member.
